

Yule Log Tavern

You and Red arrive just in time for trivia night.

Host: Welcome! Tonight, we've got some fun questions about our favorite jolly hero. You may know him from many stories and films, but there's one classic movie that's my favorite. Good luck!

He lives in a far off land with his counterpart, who has been known to give him a hand. Who is it?

He is associated with a scary, toothy beast that deals with those who displease him. What kind of beast?

We all recognize his single-colored suit and matching hat, which goes nicely with Christmas decor. What embellishment adorns his hat?

The distinctive silhouette of his ride in the night sky is recognized by children and parents alike. What is this vehicle's name?

He flies over the city and lands on the rooftop as the children are going to bed. In what city might you spot him?

He has a group of animalian companions, who follow his commands on where to go. Who are they?

It's the power of magic that lets him and his crew take to the skies. What kind of magic, specifically?

You can reach his home by following a star. Which star?

He flies with a companion who shines a bright pinprick of light that illuminates the night. Who is it?

The grown ups don't believe in him, but children know he's real. Which child is the best authority?

When he's around, the children sing of Christmas, snow, and sleigh bells. What is the song?

A collection of empty rectangular boxes of various lengths, arranged in a grid-like pattern. A dashed line winds through the boxes, connecting them in a specific sequence, likely representing the answers to the trivia questions above.
