

Rudolph's House

Rudolph! Santa is missing and... wait, what's this?

I'm planning the sleigh route! On Christmas Eve, we travel the globe, making one visit to every child's house—except the naughty children of course. We even stop by the South Pole, but we end up back home just before sunrise. The first stop is the North Pole, and every fourth stop, my nose shines extra bright to guide the way!

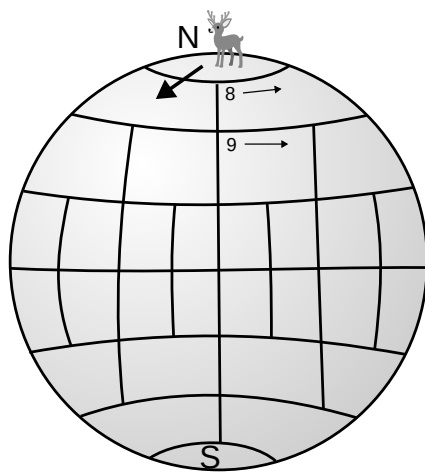

But with Santa gone, you won't get to go at all!

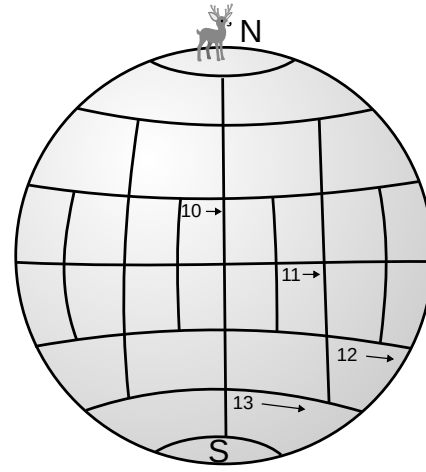

Well, if you help me finish this route, I'll help you find a clue to Santa...

This metapuzzle uses the answers from puzzles 8–13.

(Front)

(Back)

